Doming magnet #MGODD

 Item available in sales program

MGODD is basically a regular doming sticker with rubberized magnet layer on the back.

Doming is a great & most cost efficient way to custom print promotional product, especially for small quantity. It offers the advantage of offset full color printing (cmyk) process without the expensive setup charge and long delivery time.

Quickly make full color printing, un-scratchable and durable magnet, at very low cost even for low quantity.

As with doming process, magnet can also be uniquely customized, with running number and UID code including letters & digits, one unique code on each magnet.
